Multi Academy Trust

Pathfinder Multi Academy Trust Communications Officer

Grade 7 - £22,923 to £25,320
37 hours per week - Full Year - 1 Year Contract Initially

An exciting opportunity has arisen to play a key role in the further development of this high performing Pathfinder Multi Academy Trust.

Required to start as soon as possible, we are looking for a highly-motivated and creative Communications Officer to develop a clear strategic communications plan for the Trust and provide leadership of all aspects of both external and internal communication.

The successful candidate will support the MAT Board, MAT Executive Headteacher and Headteachers of individual MAT schools by creating and delivering an internal and external annual communications plan for the Trust that will provide high quality public relations and communications provision across the Academy Trust. Key to this will be delivering internal and external communications that effectively communicate the vision and ethos synonymous with Pathfinder.

The Pathfinder Multi Academy Trust is a well-led and well organised Trust with a strong reputation throughout the local community. Formed in August 2016, the MAT is an inclusive partnership of like-minded Church and Community Schools, underpinned by a shared vision, common values and a commitment to providing outstanding education to all the young people we serve. By September 2017 it will comprise of 8 schools with the potential to grow to 15.

If this opportunity resonates with you, we look forward to receiving your application.

For further details visit: www.pathfindermat.co.uk. Please send completed application forms and letters of application to the MAT Executive Headteacher, Archbishop Holgate's School.

Closing date: Monday 26 June 2017 at midday
Interviews are likely to be during the same week

Our school is an equal opportunities employer, committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. Enhanced DBS check required.
